Press Release

Students participating in Huawei's 'Seed for the Future' receive awards at the Mohamed Bin Zayed Majlis For Future Generations Summit

Huawei, a leading global ICT solutions provider, today recognized student teams who took part in its 'Seeds for the Future' program, at the Mohamed Bin Zayed Majlis For Future Generations Summit, being held on 7 & March in Abu Dhabi. The program has provided ICT training to hundreds of UAE students since it launched in 2008.

Held under the patronage of His Highness Sheikh Mohamed Bin Zayed Al Nahyan, Crown Prince of Abu Dhabi, Deputy Supreme Commander of the UAE Armed Forces and Chairman of the Executive Council of the Emirate of Abu Dhabi, the Summit is a unique opportunity for Emirati students to spend two days meeting Leadership from the UAE government, entrepreneurs, champions of innovation and future leaders of the UAE. The Summit is attended by more than 3,000 students from across the UAE and is attended by the highest echelon of leadership from the UAE.

"Companies such as Huawei play an important role in the development of talent," said H.E. Dr. Ahmad Belhoul, Minister of State for Higher Education. "Seeds for the Future in particular, is a unique platform for university students to explore opportunities in ICT, a sector that is key to the UAE's growth and development. The program not only offers our future graduates a meaningful experience but also the opportunity to cultivate the skills necessary to be more competitive in the information age."
